CKT-UTAS ORGANISES IT'S FIRST SCIENCE CAFÉ

PRE-CONGREGATION ACTIVITIES

As a prelude to the just ended Second Congregation Ceremony the University organised its first Science Café on the topic “The Relevance of Science and Technology Research in Community Development – the role of CKT-UTAS”. The programme attracted participants from the surrounding communities, academia, Chiefs, the media and other stakeholders. On another occasion the Vice-Chancellor, Professor Eric Magnus Wilmot and the Dean of Academic Planning and Quality Assurance, Professor Samson Abagale engaged some TV and Radio Stations to highlight the mission and vision of the University.

CKT-UTAS GRADUATES IT'S 1ST COHORT OF PHD STUDENTS

As part of fulfilling its strategic mandate of producing high caliber graduates capable of transforming society and fostering relationship through integrated technology and applied sciences, the University has within 3 years of existence graduated its first cohort of Five (5) PhD students from the School of Mathematical Sciences (SMS). This was witnessed in the 2nd Congregation Ceremony held on June 24, 2023.

CKT-UTAS COMMENDED FOR A FEE-FREE APPLICATION SYSTEM

The Special Guest of Honour, Prof. Mohammed Salifu applauded the University for implementing a fee-free application system for prospective students. He accordingly encouraged other institutions to emulate this good example. The implementation of this policy enables potential students to apply for admission without necessarily purchasing admission forms.

DIRECTOR GENERAL OF GTEC ADMONISHES STAFF OF CKT-UTAS

The Director General of Ghana Tertiary Education Commission (GTEC) Prof Mohammed Salifu has cautioned staff of CKT-UTAS to avoid internal bickering. He said internal wrangling will not auger well for the development of the new University. He further admonished all staff to always use the existing internal structures in resolving grievances. He said this at the 2nd Congregation Ceremony organized by the University. Prof Salifu also recognized the critical role played by staff and commended management for sticking to the mandate of the University.

GOVERNMENT PROMISES A HALL OF RESIDENCE FOR CKT-UTAS

The Special Guest of Honour, Prof Salifu Mohammed announced Government’s assurance to provide student accommodation for the University to improve student’s enrolment for teaching and learning. Prof Salifu explained that a 400 bed student’s hostel will be provided to mitigate the current deficiency in accommodation. Staff and students of the University were delighted for this assurance because the current bed capacity of the existing Halls is 250, which is woefully inadequate to accommodate the student population of 3,080.
